01. a word mark
A word mark grants exclusive rights to a brand name, offering broad protection across all formats, styles, and representations. It prevents others from using the word for similar goods or services, regardless of design or font.

02. a logo
A logo trademark protects the unique combination of design, image, and stylized text as a whole, not just the words within it. It restricts others from using logos that are visually or deceptively similar, but offers limited protection for the words alone.

Objection

We need to file an objection reply within 30 days from the date of issue of examination report. If reply is accepted then again point 5 and point 6 mentioned above will follow that is trademark will be published in journal for about 4 to 5 months to await objection from third party and if no objection is raised by any third party, then trademark will get registered.

If reply is not directly accepted then the trademark office will call for a hearing.

In case of opposition from the third party as mentioned in point 5 above:

Need to file a counter statement and evidence within 2 months.

TIMELINE OF GETTING THE REGISTRATION DONE:
Ideally 6 months to 1 year but if in case we receive examiner or third-party objections then it may take few years.
